Check out the complete FIFA 22 gameplay preview video below for a deeper look at the new features introduced in the game. Read on for more details on the new game modes, the careers, and more. FIFA 22 Game Modes

First Touch: First Touch is a new mode that uses real-world, everyday players to demonstrate FIFA 22's new gameplay features. Tackles, ball control, and passes are all based on motion capture data from these real-life players. There will be three "sequences" featured in this mode, while the movement of the ball will be synced.

3v3 and 5v5 Play: In this mode, five or six players will play against three or five opposition teams. Each team will have the ability to play as one of three formations (I, B, and O): I – 4-3-1-2 I – 4-2-3-1 I – 4-2-3-1 B – 4-4-1-1 B – 4-4-1-1 B – 4-4-1-1 O – 3-2-3-1 O – 3-2-3-1 O – 3-2-3-1

Players will not be able to choose between "Attack" or "Defense" – the game will decide that for them based on the formation of the team they are on.

Replay: In Replay mode, users are presented with a new video section that allows them to capture and save replays from their gameplay sessions. Users can save both best match (top 3 or 5 scores per match) and highlight moments (top 5), or they can save the entire match. Players will be able to complete single match kits and customize them for easy creation of

What's new:

- • FIFA 22 introduces “Hyper Motion Technology,” which uses motion capture data from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power gameplay.
- • Improved FIFA Player Intelligence, with users now getting feedback when they receive the ball to remind them not to pass it sideways, out of bounds etc. • Players are now allowed to go down to win the ball with an “Impediment” reaction, meaning players can crowd and win the ball back in their preferred area using a positioning animation and a blocking animation when dispossessed.
- • New in FIFA 22 is Focus and Pass Grafics System, which show off players’ hyper-agility, playmaking capabilities and accuracy with the ball. Pass Grafics Mode is enhanced with new logic that determines how well a player is performing on a team, allowing coaches to personalise player graphics. FIFA 20 players with mega Agilities, Pass Grafics setting turned all the way up can enjoy the best graphics.
- • New corner kicks that feature evasive players and more dynamic techniques.
- • New 3D stadiums with dynamic pitches.
- • Transfer spending is impacted by Coaches' attributes.
- • New Goalkeeper traits.
- • New Buy-In Packs.

Featuring crowd emotions, team intelligence, and improved gameplay. Where is FIFA? EA SPORTS FIFA is the most realistic football video game on the market with a gameplay engine built on the same infrastructure as the award-winning FIFA franchise. Featuring crowd emotions, team intelligence, and improved gameplay. Why use FIFA? The FIFA franchise is synonymous with entertainment. Every time we've changed the game we've made an impact. FIFA 13 is the most popular football game ever to be released and is still played by more than 43 million people a year. FIFA 16, 17, and 18 all brought more than ten new playable features and innovations to the FIFA franchise. How does FIFA work? The FIFA gameplay engine is built on the same infrastructure as FIFA, the only major difference is it is powered by EA SPORTS. The result is an experience that is deeper, more authentic and more engaging than ever. The engine orchestrates every aspect of gameplay – character control, ball physics, refereeing, player intelligence, crowd reactions, and the flow of the match – delivering the first ever football simulation ever. And now even more so, with innovations like a true coach position, or more advanced player individuality. The gameplay engine is based on the same FIFA template used in the award-winning FIFA series.
